YEAR OF THE ROOSTER BEGAN TO EUGENIA KUZMINA WITH TWO MAIN ROLES

Protracted New Year holidays are typical for Russia, but in America, from the first of January everything starts to work as usual. For the actress Eugenia Kuzmina, who lives in Los Angeles, the new year began with major roles in two projects.

The first film called "tricks" which shootings have already begun, based on real events and tells the story of the underground business in Las Vegas. The picture shows the reverse side of the bright and glamorous city of light - drug lords, prostitution and crime. In this film, Evgeny Kuzmin plays a girl named Kimchi, a girlfriend of one of the mafia bosses (by the nature of it is similar to the character in the legendary Sharon Stone "Casino").

The second picture with Eugene - "Legna," a thriller about a retired police, who suffers from an unhealthy obsession with blondes. After another woman was a victim of his fantasies and was accidentally strangled him in a fit of passion, an ex-cop trying to flee from justice, and along the way encounters a blonde (just type it) on the road that hitchhiking is trying to get to another city. She then played Evgeny Kuzmin. In the course of a few unpredictable events, the girl's life changes forever and police. Filming will begin in February, and rolled both pictures should come out this summer.
